

You'd never guess that smart, cosmopolitan Santa Eulalia shares the same island as boisterous San Antonio, but those visitors who have discovered Santa Eulalia love it.

Aside from the clean sandy beaches, backed by an attractive promenade, this resort offers watersports and boat excursions from the modern yacht marina. It has more good quality restaurants than other resorts of similar size, tucked into narrow streets, with a good share of high fashion boutiques and only one night club - all within 20 minutes from the Airport.

Santa Eulalia has lovely sandy beaches - the yellow coloured sand is soft, the sea is crystal clear and the beach shelves gently making it excellent for swimming and watersports. If you're brave there's always the 'Banana' ride. Maybe you're skilful and can master water skiing - or had 2 shredded wheat for breakfast and fancy being towed strapped to a 'Parachute' !! All of this within a 10 min. walk from the apartment.

Branch out into the main town for a bit of shopping, walking through the tree covered 'hippy market'.

Towards the northern end of the promenade is the harbour. Here you'll find some impressive looking boats - take a stroll or stop at one of the many bars. If you have all day, perhaps you'll take one of the water taxis to Cala Llonga, Es Cana, Ibiza town or even Formentera.

Do as the locals do and amble along the promenade in early evening. Whether you're looking for tried & trusted international menus or traditional local cuisine it's all here. Discover the 'Street of Restaurants' and the excellent value of eating in the 'Siesta' area - but what could be better than dinner at the quayside people watching as you enjoy your meal?

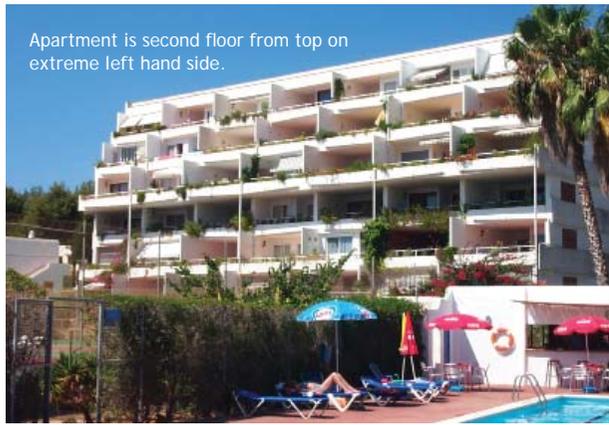

With so many places to visit within a short walk a hire car is not essential. In only 5 minutes you could be crossing the only river in the Balearics for a drink at Mariners Bar just yards from the sea.....

- just like Shirley Valentine...
